

COURT MEMBER QUESTIONNAIRE

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT - Authority: 5 U.S.C. 301

Principal purposes: The information which is solicited on this form is for assisting the trial and defense counsel in the preparation of trial before court-martial and conducting voir dire examination of prospective members (voir dire is a procedure whereby both trial and defense counsel, through questioning, attempt to determine if any basis exists to challenge any member of the court).

Routine uses: The information solicited will be used by the trial and defense counsel during their trial preparation. Answers to these questions are requested to allow court-martial personnel to prepare impending cases. Completion of this questionnaire will save court-members and counsel time at trial. If you are selected to sit as a court-martial member, a copy of this form will become a permanent part of the record of trial.

Please complete this form completely and return it to your command legal office.
