INSTRUCTIONS

Evaluation to be Considered for Future Determination Acceptability for Other Officer Training

Highly Recommended. Student demonstrates a well above average aptitude for military service. Students who have manifested superior academic prowess, but who have only average aptitude for military service, may be considered in this category. Do not use for students who have been disenrolled for the good of the service, physical, disciplinary, or inaptitude reasons.

Average Candidate. The great majority of students recommended as candidates will fall in this category. Do not use for students disenrolled for the good of the service, physical, disciplinary, or inaptitude reasons.

Should not be Considered Without Weighing the "Need of the Service" Against the Reasons for Disenrollment. For students disenrolled for unusally poor academic records (e.g., lack of intellectual capacity for service as a commissioned office or demonstrated a lack of aptitude for military service). Students disenrolled for disciplinary reasons may be considered in this category should the reasons for the disenrollment be such that the individual should not be prevented from applying for an Officer Candidate Program at some future time. Do not use for students disenrolled for "Good of the Service."

Definitely not Recommended. Students disenrolled for disciplinary and inaptitude reasons normally fall in this category unless extenuating circumstances existed which would place them in the above category. All students disenrolled for "Good of the Service" shall be placed in this category.

Recommended if Physical Defects are Corrected or Defects are not Disqualifying for Other Programs. For students disenrolled for physical reasons, unless it is obvious the physical difficultites noted are such that the disenrollee could not possibly enter Officer Candidate Program.
