Subj: OPERATIONS SECURITY

Ref: (a) OPNAVINST 3432.1

(D)

1. Purpose. To promulgate guidance for conducting Operations Security (OPSEC) programs and OPSEC within the Naval Education and Training Command (NAVEDTRACOM).

2. Cancellation. CNETINST 3070.1B, CNET Report 3070-1

3. Definitions

a. OPSEC. A process of analyzing friendly actions attendant to military operations and other activities to:

(1) Identify those actions that can be observed by adversary intelligence systems.

(2) Determine indicators hostile intelligence systems might obtain that could be interpreted or pieced together to derive critical information in time to be useful to adversaries.

(3) Select and execute measures that eliminate or reduce to an acceptable level the vulnerabilities of friendly actions to adversary exploitations.

b. OPSEC Measures. Means of controlling and protecting indicators so as to provide sufficiently for essential secrecy.

4. Policy

a. All NAVEDTRACOM activities will conduct a proactive OPSEC program as outlined in paragraph 5 of reference (a).

(R)

b. The training requirements as determined by compliance with paragraph 5 of reference (a) will be integrated into all command OPSEC programs and all applicable courses of instruction taught by the NAVEDTRACOM.

(R)

5. Discussion. Guidance for the conduct of OPSEC within the Navy is contained in reference (a). The NAVEDTRACOM's mission is to conduct training in support of the operating forces of the U.S. Navy. OPSEC awareness must be an integral part of all operations and training evolutions to ensure that planned operations, the frequency of training, and the methods used to conduct training do not provide a potential enemy knowledge which can be used against the command and the U.S. Navy. Therefore, all NAVEDTRACOM commands will establish OPSEC programs, naval and civilian personnel and Navy contractors must understand the concepts of OPSEC, and OPSEC awareness must be a part of every task.

6. Responsibilities

a. Functional Commanders and Activities Reporting Directly to Chief of Naval Education and Training (CNET)

R) (1) Establish staff/command OPSEC plans and conduct OPSEC planning and surveys in accordance with paragraph 5 of reference (a).

(2) Ensure that all subordinate commands establish OPSEC plans and conduct OPSEC programs in accordance with reference (a).

R) (3) Ensure that applicable OPSEC training requirements as determined by compliance with paragraph 5 of reference (a) are integrated into all command programs and training courses.

D)

b. All NAVEDTRACOM Commands

R) (1) Establish command OPSEC plans and conduct OPSEC planning and surveys in accordance with paragraph 5 of reference (a).

(2) Conduct proactive OPSEC programs in accordance with reference (a).

D)

R) 7. Reports. There is no formal report required to indicate compliance with reference (a). Commands will, however, still be responsible for maintaining records sufficient to demonstrate compliance with OPNAV and CNET directives related to OPSEC.
